Briefly share your top 2–3 platform priorities.

DEI, Budget, Environmental Sustainability, Small Business Viability, Living Wages and Sustainable Housing for both housed and unhoused Charlotteans ... I don't subscribe to a limited regard to priorities; i believe all Charlotteans concerns and needs are generally priorities

What do you believe are the most pressing issues facing Black women and girls in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg community?

DEI, Employment Stability and Small Business Viability, Safety, Mental Health and Health Care

Are there any specific initiatives in your platform that support equity in health, education, or economic empowerment?

My co-mayoral forum will give Black women and girls a seat at the proverbial table to co-mayor with me. I plan to regularly meet with spokespersons from each demographic and compile briefs thereupon to present to the full council to inform decision making

Do you have any accessibility or setup needs for the event?

No

Upload your campaign headshot or photo (optional).

Please add a brief BIO

I am a doctoral Scientist, Economist and Juris Doctorate and thus a lawyer pursuing license to practice law. I'm also a lifelong youth mentor, having began in undergrad mentoring pre-teen and teen girls at Allen Middle School. I've owned PurSUEt of Happyyness Corporation, my private consulting firm specializing in Business Legitimacy and Viability, the Performing Arts and Environmental Sustainability, since 1999. I'm a military brat and former Federal Park Ranger. I've taught ESL to immigrant families and have also ran my philanthropic projects, Under My Umbrella Campaign and the Southern Hospitality Project, as a division of The Aboveground Railroad Incorporated since 1999, as well. Of all these "titles," I'm most proud to be MOM. I have one son and have enjoyed homeschooling him for the past 4 years. I've curated a life of enlightenment, empowerment, and impact for myself, my family and the communities I serve. For these reasons, and others, I am your BEST candidate for Mayor of Charlotte.
